SAILING CRUISE

FREMANTLE TO EXMOUTH

DEPARTS: 17th APRIL 2010

DAY 1 - Fremantle to the Abrolhos Islands (approx 30 hours).

All hands on deck! With experienced skipper Simon Milsom, you will be given an introduction to the vessel and basic sailing techniques. Then you will settle in for the overnight journey to Abrolhos Islands, 60km west of Geraldton.

DAY 2 - Abrolhos Islands.

At the Houtman Abrolhos Islands you can swim, snorkel, fish or just savour unique coral reef formations, birdlife, shipwrecks and the wild beauty of the islands.

Anchor overnight at Abrolhos Islands.

DAY 3 - Abrolhos to Steep Point, Shark Bay (approx 30 hours)

Today's destination is Steep Point, the most westerly point of Australia's mainland. Along the way, look out for dolphins and marine birds. En route we will sail past The Zoytdorp (pronounced Zurtoff) Cliffs that begin at Kalbarri to the South and end at Steep Point, make for some of the most awesome scenery you will ever lay your eyes on.

DAY 4 - Steep Point, Shark Bay

Spend the day fishing, swimming or just relaxing and taking in the vista around you, before we set sail through Shark Bay for sheltered Turtle Bay and historic Cape Inscription.

It was at Cape Inscription in October 1616 that the first Europeans landed on the west coast of Australia.

Anchor overnight at Turtle Bay.

DAY 5 - Turtle Bay

From aboard the yacht, you will be able to see Cape Inscription Lighthouse, built in 1909. The waters of Turtle Bay are warm and clear - perfect for a swim before sailing onto Coral Bay and the Ningaloo Reef.

Anchor overnight at Coral Bay.

DAY 6 - Coral Bay and the Ningaloo Reef

Coral Bay's clear waters and close proximity to world heritage listed Ningaloo Reef will make this part of the journey well worth the wait. Enjoy snorkelling and swimming in crystal clear waters with a wide abundance of marine life. The area enjoys visits from whale sharks, manta rays and migrating Humpback Whales. Snorkelling amongst a wide variety of colourful marine animals and coral is an experience you don't want to miss!

DAY 7 - Ningaloo Reef Experience

Sailing along secluded bays of the Ningaloo Reef will give you the opportunity to sail in sheltered waters whilst taking in the amazing scenery and experience first-hand why Ningaloo reef deserves its world heritage listed status.

Anchor overnight at Tandabiddy Northern Bay on Ningaloo Reef.

DAY 8 – Exmouth Awaits

After a relaxing breakfast aboard Starsand, we will depart for Exmouth, our final destination. Upon arriving in Exmouth you will have the opportunity to regain your 'land-legs' with a visit the local pub for a cold ale where you can swap stories of "how was that..?" and "did you see..?".

SAILING CRUISE

EXMOUTH TO BROOME

DEPARTS 25TH APRIL 2008

PLEASE READ IN REVERSE

DAY 1 – Exmouth to Muirion Islands

Whether you are new aboard or continuing the journey with us, Simon and the experienced crew will have you sailing in no time! Today we depart Exmouth for Muirion Islands, which have sheltered clear waters perfect for snorkelling and fishing.

Anchor overnight at Muirion Islands.

DAY 2 – The Montebellos

Sailing today we head for the Montebellos, a group of nearly 100 limestone islands surrounded by white sandy beaches and turquoise green waters. With a six-metre tidal range, the islands are perfect for snorkelling and beachcombing. Check out the map for peculiar place names such as Claret Bay; Rum Cove; Sherry and Brandy Lagoons; Champagne, Chartreuse and even Burgundy bays.

Anchored overnight at Montebellos Islands.

DAY 3 - Islands of the Dampier Archipelago

Departing after a relaxed breakfast, we set sail for the Dampier Archipelago – 42 pristine islands off the Dampier and Point Sampson Coast.

Anchor overnight Dampier Archipelago.

DAY 4 - Explore the Dampier Archipelago

Sailing through the Dampier Archipelago, keep a look out for bottlenose dolphins and elusive dugongs. Take a walk on secluded beaches or simply sit back and relax before we set sail overnight for the Rowley Shoals.

DAY 5 - The Rowley Shoals Marine Park

As the day dawns, sunlight is cast over the world's most exclusive atolls – the Rowley Shoals. With limited access to tour operators, this is an experience you will always talk about. These shoals are world famous for snorkelling, diving and fishing. An underwater paradise just waiting for you to discover!

Anchor overnight at the Rowley Shoals.

Day 7 - Departing for Broome

After a fun-filled day of activity at the Rowley Shoals, we hoist the main sail and head for our final destination, Broome.

DAY 8 – Broome Awaits

No arrival in Broome quite compares to being under full sail along Cable Beach. All eyes on the beach will be on 'Starsand' and her crew as she majestically cruises along part of WA's most picturesque coastline. Once we have disembarked and you have regained your 'land-legs' why not join the skipper at the one of Broome's famous pubs for a cold ale.
